

HAAA FIREWORKS!

This is one boy who didn't have to wait until the evening of May 24 for excitement. He's having a preview of the pinheads and spinners and Roman candles and such-like that brighten up the skies on Queen Victoria's birthday. "That's for me," chorries David. "Just you wait until I handle my own next year. And come to think of it, how come I missed all this in 1947? I see—I hadn't arrived yet!" David is 10 months old, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abert of 2039 Portage avenue.

HUG YOUR BEDS, HOLIDAYERS!

Okay, So It's A Record Low But Why Pick Victoria Day?

Winnipeggers welcomed May 24 with a distinct coolness of manner today and no wonder... Victoria Day had dawned, not with a warming smile, but with the coldest greeting ever recorded, a lowly low temperature of 23.7 degrees.

Drew Says Liberal Vote Is Vote For Socialists

Prime Minister St. Laurent is to announce a vote for a Liberal government, said "Drew" today. "It is a vote for a Liberal government," he said. "It is a vote for a Liberal government, and a government to be formed by a combination of those known as the Liberal and C.C.F. parties."

FUN TO WATCH BUT CLOSER—OUCH!

But Victoria day activities might be slightly dampened by the weather, a man warned. "There may be the occasional light shower," said "Drew" today. "It is raining in parts of Saskatchewan."
